Because it has already been placed among the greatest improvements in this art by "VOX POPULI" and I say, unhesitatingly, to friends and patrons that if the Sensational Dry Champoo is continued in my shop in the future as successfully as it has in the past, there certainly cannot necessarily be a FELO DE SE within a hundred miles of Bangor.

National Union Republican Convention.

The undersigned, constituting the National Committee designated by the Convention held at Chicago on the 20th of May, 1868, hereby call a Convention of the Union Republican party at the city of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 5th day of June next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purposes of nominating candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States.
Each State is authorized to be represented in the Convention by delegates equal to twice the number of Senators and Representatives to which it will be entitled in the next National Congress and each organized Territory is authorized to send two delegates.
In calling this Convention, the Committee remind the country that the promise of the Union Republican Convention of 1868 have been fulfilled. The States lately in rebellion have been restored to their former relations to the Government. The laws of the country have been faithfully executed, public faith has been preserved, and the national credit firmly established. Governmental economy has been illustrated by the reduction, at the same time, of the public debt and of taxation, and the funding of the national debt at a lower rate of interest has been successfully inaugurated. The rights of naturalized citizens have been protected by treaties, and immigration encouraged by liberal provisions. The defenders of the Union have been gratefully remembered, and the rights and interests of labor recognized. Laws have been enacted, and are being enforced, for the protection of persons and property in all sections. Equal suffrage has been engrafted on the National Constitution, the privileges and immunities of American citizenship have become a part of the organic law, and a liberal policy has been adopted toward all who engaged in the rebellion—Complications in foreign relations have been adjusted in the interest of peace throughout the world, while the national honor has been maintained. Corruption has been exposed, offenders punished, responsibility enforced, safeguards established, and now, as heretofore, the Republican party stands pledged to correct all abuses and carry out all reforms necessary to maintain the purity and efficiency of the public service. To continue and firmly establish its fundamental principles, we invite the co-operation of all the citizens of the United States.

A horse belonging to Rev. Dr. Tenney of Ellsworth, was stolen last week and found in an exhausted condition in the town of Dedham a few days after.

Mr. Orville B. Grant, formerly of Ellsworth and a graduate of Bowdoin, has lately taken charge of the Hughes school, Providence, R. I., at a salary of $2000.

The dwelling house of David Thomas, in Eden, at Otter Creek, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night, May 11, and every thing in the house burnt.

The town of Orland has voted to extend exemption from taxation, provided for by State Laws, to all manufactured capital which may become invested within its limits.

The house and out buildings belonging to Epps H. Stanley of Cranberry Isles, was burned on the night of the 16th inst., with nearly all its contents.

The Lewiston Journal says that on Sunday morning Mr. David Scannel, who has been sick for some time, called to his wife to give him a drink. Immediately after she went out and being gone so long as to excite alarm, he sent out a child who found her prostrate and just alive. She had fallen in a fit of apoplexy.

Prior to the arrival of the bark "Kate Prince" at Portland, two of the sailors had some altercation with each other growing out of an old grudge and one of them, John Murphy, cut the other, Benj. Pendor, quite badly with a knife. On the arrival of the vessel the man who had committed the deed escaped and the police are looking for him.

On Tuesday morning a derrick being erected at Farwell's Mills, Lisbon, fell, carrying down with it another one. Two men, Otis Vining and David Lanahan, on at each derrick, were struck and badly injured. Vining was thrown from a wall on which he was standing, twenty-six feet upon a mass of rocks. He had a wrist crushed and also received injuries on his head and hip. Mr. Lanahan was struck in the back by the boom of the derrick, but fortunately was protected by a bank of sand, and saved from death.

SLEEPING FLOWERS.—Almost all flowers sleep during the night. The marigold goes to bed with the sun, and with him rises weeping. Many plants are so sensitive that they close their leaves during the passage of a cloud. The dandelion opens at five or six in the morning, and shuts at nine in the evening. The goat's-beard wakes at three in the morning, and shuts at five or six in the evening. The English daisy shuts up its blossoms in the evening, and opens its "day's eye" to meet the early beams of the morning sun. The crocus, tulip, and many others, close their blossoms at different hours towards the evening. The ivy-leaved, [illegible] eight in the morning, and clover [illegible] four in the afternoon. The night-flowering cereus turns night into day. [illegible]

PRESIDENT GREELEY

ACCOUNT OF THE "AMERICAN BATTLE OF DORKING"

The following was first published in Frank Leslie's paper, now a Greeley organ. It is headed the "Fall of America."

You ask me to tell you, my children, of the events which immediately preceeded the destruction of the once great American Union and the capture of the country by its present European rulers, and to say something, also, of the course that led to these deplorable results. I undertake the task with a heavy heart for when I revert to that terrible time I cannot help contrasting our proud condition up to that fatal year with the humiliating position occupied now by the American people. The story is a short one. In the fall of 1872 Horace Greeley, the editor of a newspaper in New York, was elected President of the United States. The people voted for him because they thought he was an honest man. And so he was. But he was also vain and weak, and he entertained certain fanatical and preposterous notions—about agricultural matters, for instance—which he was determined to force upon the people at all hazards, and despite all opposition. He believed, among other things, that every man ought to go to the West to earn his bread, and long before he was chosen President he used to advise everybody to move to that region, as a cure for all the disasters that could befall the human family.

As soon as he reached the Executive Mansion, which we used to call the White House, President Greeley organized an army of two hundred thousand men, and proceeded to force the entire population of the seaboard States westward at the point of the bayonet. The utmost violence was used. Those who resisted were shot down, and their dead bodies were carted off to a national factory which the President had established for making some kind of fantastical fertilizer. All the large cities of the East were depopulated, and the towns were entirely empty. The army swept before it millions of men, women and children until the vast plains west of Kansas were reached, when the pursuit ceased and the army was drawn up in a continuous line, with orders to shoot any person who attempted to visit the East. Of course, hundreds of thousands of these poor creatures perished from starvation. This seemed to frighten President Greeley, and he sent a message to Congress recommending that seven hundred thousand volumes of a book of his, entitled "What I Know about Farming," should be devoted for the relief of the starving sufferers. This was done, and farming implements and seeds were supplied and then the millions of wretched outcasts made an effort to till their ground. Of the result of this I will speak further on.

In the meantime the President was doing infinite harm to the country in another way. His handwriting was so fearfully and wonderfully bad that no living man could read it. And so when he sent his first annual message to Congress—the document was devoted wholly to the tariff and agriculture—a sentence appeared which subsequently was ascertained to be, "Large cultivation of rutabagas and beans is the only hope of the American nation, I am sure." The printers, not being able to interpret this, put it in the following, in which it went to the world. "The Czar of Russia couldn't keep clean if he washed himself with the whole Atlantic Ocean once a day!" This perversion of the message was immediately telegraphed to Russia by the Russian Minister, and the Czar was so indignant that he immediately declared war.

Just at this time President Greeley undertook to write some letters to Prince Bismarck upon the subject of potato rot, and, after giving his singular views at great length, he concluded with the statement that if the Emperor William said that sub soil plowing was not good in light soil, or that guano was not better than bone dust, he was a liar, a villian and a slave." Of course the Emperor also immediately declared war, and became an ally of Russia and England, against which latter country Mr. Greeley had actually begun hostilities already, because the Queen, in her speech from the throne, had declared the Tribune's advocacy of a tariff on pig iron incendiary, and calculated to disturb the peace of nations.

Unhappily, this was not the full measure of our disasters. The President had sent to the Emperor of Austria a copy of his book, "What I Know," &c., with his autograph upon the fly-leaf. The Emperor mistook the signature for a caricature of the Austrian eagle, and he readily joined in the war against the United States; while France was provoked to the same act by the fact that when the French Minister came to call upon Mr. Greeley to present his credentials, the President, who was writing an editorial at the time, not comprehending the French language, mistook the Ambassador for a beggar and without looking up handed him a quarter and said to him, "Go West, young man—go West."

So all these nations joined in making war upon the United States. They swooped down upon our coasts and landed without opposition for those exposed portions of our unhappy country were absolutely deserted. The President was afraid to call away the army from Kansas at first, for fear the outraged people upon the plains would come East in spite of him. But at last he did summon the army to his aid, and it moved to meet the enemy. It was too late. Before the troops reached Cincinnati the foreigners had seized Washington and all the country east of the Ohio, and had hung the President, the Cabinet, and every member of Congress. The army disbanded in alarm, and the invaders moved to the far west, where they found the population dying of starvation because they had followed the advice of Greeley's book, to "Try for your first crop, to raise limes; and don't plant more than a bushel of quicklime in a hill." Of course, these wretched people were at the mercy of the enemy, who—to his credit be it said—treated them kindly, fed them, and brought them back to their old homes.

You know what followed—how Prince Frederick William of Prussia ascended the American throne, and the other humiliations that ensued. It was a fearful blow to Republicanism—a blow from which they will never recover. It made us who were freemen, a nation of slaves. It was all the result of our blind confidence in a misguided old man, who thought himself a philosopher, but who was actually a fool. May Heaven preserve you, my children, from the remorse I feel when I remember that I voted for that bucolic old editor.

SENSIBLE TALK ABOUT AN ABSURD CUSTOM.—If I could persuade all the young people of Elmira never to treat each other, nor be treated, I think one-half the danger from our strong drink would be gone. If I cannot get you to sign the total abstinence pledge, binding until you are twenty-five, I would be glad to have you promise three things, first, never to drink on the sly, alone, second, never to drink socially, treating or being treated, third, when you drink, do it openly, and in the presence of some men or women whom you respect.

Now, boys, if you wish to be generous and treat each other, why not select some other shop beside the liquor shop? Suppose, as you go by the postoffice you say, "Come in and take some stamps." These stamps will do your friends some good, and will cost you no more than drinks all round. Or go by the tailor's store and say, "Boys, come in and take a box of collars." Walk up to the counter, free and generous and say, "What style will you have?" Why not treat to collars as well as drinks? or go by a confectioner's and propose to treat chocolate drops all round? or say, "I'll stand a jackknife all round?"

How does it happen that we have fallen in to a habit, almost compulsory, of social drinking? You drink many a time when asked to, when really you do not want to. When a man has treated you, you feel mean and indebted, and keep a sort of account current in your mind, and treat him. And so in the use of just that agent, which at the very best is a dangerous one, you join hand in hand to help each other to ruin instead of hand in hand to help each other to temperance.

Whig & Courier.

JOHN H. LYNDE, - - PROPRIETOR.

FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1872.

WHY THIS CHANGE?

Less than eight months ago Mr. Greeley and his friends applied for the admission of their representatives from New York City to a Republican Convention. On the 29th of September, 1871, he declared that his delegation "had agreed upon a draft (of a platform) which frankly and plainly told on what grounds they wanted to make the fight." Of that draft the following was a portion:—

"II. In this alarming crisis in City and State affairs, the Republican Party refers all good citizens to its record, as their warrant for giving it their fullest confidence and support in the campaign, now formally opening, of the honest men against the thieves.

It abolished slavery.

It led in the suppression of the rebellion.

It preserved and enlarged the Union.

It promptly reduced the enormous forces thus required to a peace footing.

It has reduced the debt over two hundred and fifty millions of dollars in the last three years.

It has simultaneously reduced public taxation over two hundred and fifty millions of dollars per annum.

It has preserved peace on the frontier.

It has won a friendly adjustment of the threatening troubles with Great Britain.

III. For its conspicuous share in this beneficent record we indorse the National Republican Administration:—

We reaffirm the platform of principles laid down by the last National Republican Convention:—

And on these principles and this record, with the ticket this day chosen, we appeal to all friends of honest government, of whatever previous party association, for aid in the triumphant victory we unitedly pledge ourselves to win."

The Republican Party has steadily gone forward in the prosecution of the measures for which it is so freely and justly praised in this platform, drawn up by Greeley's delegation. It has continued to reduce the debt. It is engaged in further reducing taxation. It has preserved peace on the frontier. It is honestly and courageously seeking to save the friendly adjustment of the troubles with Great Britain, and in all this beneficent record the "National Republican Administration" has continued to "bear a conspicuous share." Moreover, the party has stood by the "principles laid down by the last National Republican Convention." Why, then, is not Mr. Greeley still with the party? Simply because he has "crooked the pregnant hinges of his knee" before the Democratic idol, and expects that "thrift will follow fawning." We have no doubt he is mistaken in his calculations. We are entirely willing to repeat now his own words of September last, "and on these principles and this record, with the ticket," chosen at Philadelphia, "appeal to all friends of honest government, of whatever previous party association, for aid in the triumphant victory we unitedly pledge ourselves to win."—[N. Y. Times.

William Shakespeare and the editor of the Commercial make a talented combination, and since the latter has evinced a desire to get into good company, William has been trotted out on all occasions. The latest effort of our gifted contemporary, is a local adaptation of a scene in Macbeth, in which, with nice discrimination, the Greeley Republicans of this vicinity are represented as ghosts, which "Come like shadows, so depart," and the editor of the Commercial assigns himself the congenial role of Hecate, the chief hag.

Our readers will appreciate the cauldron scene, and it requires but a slight effort of the imagination to picture the localized Democratic witches dancing about the "charmed pot," flinging in the "sweltered venom" and other delightful ingredients, while our poetical contemporary, with gaunt fingers extended, to clutch the hoped-for spoils, hisses forth Hecate's benediction:—

"O well done! I commend your pains;
And every one shall share i' the gains."

The Amnesty Bill. On the passage of the amnesty bill by the House, the Democrats, led by Messrs. Cox and Randall, thought a little party capital might be made by not allowing the amnesty bill to bear the President's signature, and so raised the point that it was not necessary that the bill should be sent to him. They were overruled, however, and the bill bears the endorsement of U. S. Grant. The Boston Advertiser's special says the number of persons relieved of disabilities by the amnesty bill is estimated at 150,000 and upwards. Among this number are Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, ex-Governors Letcher and Wise, of Virginia; Gen'l Forrest; Ben. Hill of Georgia; Generals Wade Hampton, Herschel V. Johnson, Hon. R. Barnwell Rhett, Hon. James A. Seddon, ex-Confederate Secretary of War, and others. The list of person still under disabilities is stated variously at from 200 to 500 and embraces Jeff. Davis, Breckenridge, Beauregard, Toombs, Semmes and others of that ilk. It is a sweeping measure and narrows the exceptions down close to the limits of safety and national self-respect. By this act another Democratic gun is effectually spiked.

We hope our contemporary who recently quoted with such gusto some hearsay reports of the opinions of the great orator, Wendell Phillips, will give a favorable notice of his published views on the nomination of Greeley. We are quite confident that if Mr. Phillips should afford the Commercial satisfactory proof of the existence of a compact with Jeff. Davis & Co., our neighbor's hesitation would come to an end and the names of "Greeley and Brown" would instantly be hoisted at the head of its columns.

Our ambitious little neighbor cackles lustily over its publication of the Greeley letter, and we may look for frequent gaps "in the world's history" for a week to come, as the result of this exhausting effort. A daily paper is expected to give news six times a week and not in semi-monthly splurges.

Those who have interpreted the recent political reserve of the Portland Advertiser as favorable to Greeley, have been mistaken. The editor has returned and in his leading articles shows neither love nor mercy for the Cincinnati candidate.

Our erudite neighbor was unfortunate in parading that spectre scene from Shakespeare, as it is not the Republican but the Democratic party, which is striving to lay the ghosts of its treacherous and bloody record, and it is but a few days since the editor of the Commercial wailed forth the despairing plea:

"Let the dead Past bury its dead."

At the Senate executive session on Wednesday, the matter of the premature publication of the correspondence was discussed; and, under a resolution reported from the committee, every Senator present was obliged to state on his honor that he had not furnished the copy or been in any way responsible for said publication.

Senator Sumner is still anxious to dictate the action of the Republican party. On Tuesday he telegraphed to Little Rock, Arkansas, in answer to an [illegible] was [illegible] the [illegible] will [illegible] cannot.

The Republicans of the Second and Third Districts have handsomely opened the campaign in renominating by acclamation their able and faithful Representatives in Congress. Hon. James G. Blaine has acquired a position and influence that reflect honor upon the State, and his constituents may well be proud of the accomplishments which have placed their Representative among the foremost men of the nation. Mr. Frye has made an excellent record in Congress, is a sterling Republican and a brilliant orator, and has fully earned the confidence so flatteringly expressed.

The Amended Apportionment Bill. The supplemental apportionment bill, giving an additional member each to New Hampshire, Vermont, New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Tennessee, Louisiana, Alabama and Florida, and providing for a House of 293 members in the next Congress, passed the Senate Wednesday, with very little opposition. This probably insures the return of Mr. Willard from Vermont, and is said to have secured the Democratic support in consequence of the fact that it gratifies the desire of Mr. S. S. Cox to run as the member at large from New York. By the new apportionment Messrs. Cox and James Brooks are thrown into the same district, with a Republican majority affording them a good prospect of relief from further Congressional service unless New York should obtain a member at large. It is expected that the Republicans will be able to elect next fall at least six of the nine members provided for by the bill.

The Biddeford Times, which is the daily of the Maine Democrat, says:—

Nothing remains now but for the Democracy to indorse him (Greeley) at Baltimore. Should they refuse to do this their doom is sealed; their party will go down in utter ruin, and their name be blotted out from the catalogue of living political organizations.

Among the opinions expressed by English papers on Mr. Greeley's nomination, those of the Economist are of interest as those of a journal widely known in this country and which habitually takes the plain common-sense view of public affairs. In discussing Gen. Grant's position it says:—

"He has not lowered the national flag in any way, has not been visibly defeated in any enterprise, has not proposed to do anything very much disliked by the masses of the people. No reason plain folk can see exists for voting against him now, which did not exist for voting against him four years ago, when he was elected by a clear majority of 300,000 votes. Among that enormous silent mass of voters that does not appear at meetings, or read many papers, or think very much of politics, there will be a great indisposition to veto him down for the sake of electing either a popular editor like Mr. Greeley, or an unpopular aristocrat like Mr. Adams. The prevailing idea of those who dislike him will, we conceive, be rather to stay away than to vote for any one else, while the temptation to those who like him to take trouble to vote is very great indeed.

An officer who served under Grant and Sheridan paid them this tribute:—

"It is easy for one who knows either of the two—Grant and Sheridan—to believe it possible that during all the period in which they have held such supreme power in our armies, not a single thought of how they might achieve greatness, power and position, at the expense of country, has ever suggested itself to their minds. There is only one other character known in profane history, of whom the same thing can be truly said."

The New Haven (Ct.) Register having "learned that certain friends of Gen. Hawley were offering ten thousand dollars for four votes," Gen. Hawley replies in the Courant: "The man don't live who can prove it or show evidence that one dime of money was unlawfully used or offered to be used to promote the election of Hawley."

Henry Ward Beecher's strong endorsement of President Grant troubles the Liberals exceedingly. They cannot answer his argument, so they put on a deprecating, half-pitying air and pretend to wonder how one so gifted can be so misled.

The Albany, N. Y., Evening Journal thinks the Democracy ought not to hesitate to indorse Mr. Greeley on account of his former abuse, inasmuch as "he is now doing his level best to commend himself to the Democracy. The manner in which he has been eating dirt lately ought to go far toward atoning, in their eyes, for his opposition in the past."

SALT LAKE, May 22. The refusal of Judge Hawley to recognize the Mormon Territorial Marshal is based on the fact that the officer was never commissioned by the Governor.

THE CHURCH ORGAN

A Blast from Wendell Phillips!

GREELEY ANOTHER ANDY JOHNSON!

A Bargain with Southern Rebels!!

Jeff Davis for Minister of State!

"No Negro can vote for Greeley!"

PLAIN TALK ABOUT THE ADAMS FAMILY!

The Labor Reformers opposed to Horace!!

Grant's Little Finger worth a baker's dozen of Greeley.

S. P. CUMMINGS OPPOSES GREELEY—LETTER FROM WENDELL PHILLIPS.

BOSTON, May 23. S. P. Cummings a well known labor reformer publishes a letter giving his reasons for opposing Greeley for President and appends to it extracts from a letter of Wendell Phillips in which letter he says:

"You know I am neither a Republican nor a Grant man. Whom I shall vote for or whether I shall vote at all I do not know

GRANT RATHER THAN GREELEY.

But certainly as against Greeley, I am for Grant. We have had one Andy Johnson, and I will not run the risk of getting another in Horace Greeley. I want a man with some decided principles; Greeley never had any. Besides, I consider Greeley a secession candidate.

A SOUTHERN PLOT.

I believe the plot to nominate him was hatched by Southern white rebels more than a year ago and has been mainly nursed by them. I advise any one who means to vote for him to find out first what agreements have been made by Mr. Greeley's friends with Jeff Davis and his staff as to office and patronage.

THE AGREEMENT WITH JEFF DAVIS.

I am perfectly certain that there is a distinct mutual understanding if not a positive contract between them. If Horace Greeley enters the White House Jeff. Davis will be as truly part of the administration as Seward was in Lincoln's day.

who values his life or property or cares for his race. If by a frown of Providence he is elected I shall advise every Southern loyalist to load the revolvers that Grant's arrest of North Carolina Ku-Klux has allowed to be laid aside.

IF GREELEY IS ELECTED

let the negroes live in squads of 50 whom no coward will dare shoot down, and show no property after sunset. Lonely men will be shot down and no black will own a mule 48 hours if any rebel knows the fact.

AS FOR ADAMS

I do not fear him. An aristocrat by birth, and a Democrat from perverseness, the love of money makes such union possible. He is a Democrat but afraid to confess his creed or wear its uniform. If any party allows him to lead it he will lead it to its grave, as all the Adamses have always done.

OLD AND YOUNG JOHN.

Old John Adams's vanity, bigotry and hate of Hamilton, put the Federal party into its tomb; John Quincy Adams's administration was the death blow of the Whig party then called Republicans. The light which gilds the Adamses is that of sunset.

THEY INSURE DEFEAT.

Chatham said Sir William Young's voice was the death knell of his country. The breath of an Adams's fame has the chill of the charnel house in it. Let them nurse their money bags like timid misers and allow bolder and more unselfish men whose foreheads are lit by the rising sun to help the world forward undisturbed by their greedy ambition or their querulous crochets.

FOR A LOYAL ADMINISTRATION, to protect the negro, awe the rebel, and give the workingman a chance, Grant's little finger is worth a baker's dozen of Greeleys."

MR. CUMMINGS SAYS

in his communication: "I shall vote the labor reform ticket if there is one in the field on the Columbus platform; but every intelligent labor-reformer knows that as a national party, the labor-reform party is practically out of the field, even though Judge Davis has not formally withdrawn. So then at present we are all at liberty to vote any national ticket we please without having our party loyalty suspected."

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

Mr. Trumbull reported from the Judiciary Committee unamended, the House bills to repeal the iron-clad oath of office and relating to new trials in the Court of Claims and the Senate bill to refund taxes paid by the State judicial officers on salaries. Several unimportant bills were reported from the same committee.

Mr. Hamlin's resolution to expel the reporter of the Associated Press was referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Davis of West Virginia, introduced a bill to remove the disabilities of Charles J. Faulkner. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Morrill of Vt., the bill to change the location of the R. R. National Bank of Lowell to Boston, was passed.

Mr. Hill introduced a bill to remove the disabilities of certain citizens of Georgia, which was referred.

The bill authorizing the auditing of the claims of Oregon for suppressing Indian hostilities, was discussed without action and the Senate then went into Executive session.

At 5:10 the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The Senate amendments to bill for duplicating U. S. bonds defaced or destroyed, were concurred in. Senate bill to provide trusses for disabled soldiers was passed, and amendments to Agricultural College law concurred in. Several bills of local character were acted on, and at 11.45 the House went into committee on the sundry civil appropriation bill.

During its consideration a message was received from the President, announcing that he had signed the amnesty bill.

Thereupon, Mr. Rogers, member elect from North Carolina, whose name was included in the bill, was sworn in, and Mr. Hoar of Mass. remarked that the House was now full, with every State and district represented.

Mr. Coburn of Indiana offered an amendment to the appropriation bill to pay $1,200 for a transcript of the Buell court martial proceeding. Proceeding to a personal explanation Mr. Coburn said he had sent for Pitman to bring his notes as soon as he learned that they were preserved and that he had been falsely accused of opposing the admission of testimony by a hired slanderer of the N. Y. Tribune. To a question of Mr. Townsend, Mr. Coburn said the reporter alluded to had been dismissed from the clerkship of the committee because he was not in harmony with the majority, was a poor clerk and kept no records.

Mr. Brooks remarked that this was not discovered until after the Cincinnati Convention. (Laughter.)

Mr. Garfield of Ohio and Mr. Hay of Illinois bore testimony to the fidelity and ability of the clerk, (Smalley) and both earnestly deprecated the system of cutting off heads on such occasions.

The amendment was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Starkweather of Conn., after a long discussion, the appropriation for a naval station at New London, Conn., was increased from $5,000 to $20,000.

On motion of Mr. Garfield of Ohio, an appropriation of $160,775 was inserted to pay the officers and crew of the Kearsarge by way of prize money for the destruction of the Alabama; also an appropriation of $85,000 for a pneumatic tube between the capital and the government printing office; also an appropriation of $30,000 for expenses of recoinage; also an appropriation of $250,000 to pay unsettled claims for carrying mails in the Southern States.

On motion of Mr. Pierce of Mississippi it was ordered that in the payment of cotton claims the internal revenue tax on cotton shall not be deducted.

The committee then rose and the bill as reported from the committee of the whole was passed.

The House then took a recess.

The evening session is to be for business of committee of naval affairs.

Near the close of the evening session Mr. Scofield of Pa. reported a bill for the construction of ten steam vessels of war of iron or wood, as the Secretary of the Navy may decide, each carrying ten or more guns of large calibre, and appropriating $3,000,000 for that purpose. A vote on the bill was prevented by dilatory motions by Messrs. Holman and Beck.

The House at 10.30 took a recess until the same hour to-morrow.

LOSS OF STEAMSHIP BALTIMORE—PASSENGERS RESCUED BY THE COAST GUARD.

LONDON, May 23. A dispatch from Hastings, England, announces that the North German Lloyds Steamship Baltimore, which arrived at Southampton yesterday, en route from Baltimore for Bremen and subsequently sailed for her destination, has met with a disaster which will probably cause her total loss.

THE COLLISION.

At 12 o'clock last night, when the Baltimore was off the town of Hastings, she came in collision with an unknown steamer and had a hole 18 feet long and 7 feet wide stove in her hull. The water poured in rapidly and extinguished her fires; not, however, before the steamer had been run aground.

THE COAST GUARDS

at Hastings immediately came to the relief of the distressed vessel and succeeded in rescuing her passengers and crew, and landing them in safety.

PROBABLY TOTAL LOSS.

When the Baltimore went ashore she ran on a rock and it is probable she will go to pieces.

Pitman, three with logs for the railway company, three with spool lumber for Thurston & Co., and two with ship-timber for Mr. McQuino of Brewer.

HIGH PRAISE. The Portland Press in announcing the coming of Stone & Murray's circus, which also appears here on Saturday, June 1st, says:

"Stone & Murray have been this way so many times that the name of the firm is synonymous with excellence. There is one good trait in the management; they strive for the best of everything, and in regard to horses, performers, and all the appointments, no company that ever travelled has ever surpassed them."

PAINFUL ACCIDENT. Private letters just received by his friends here from C. B. Abbott, esq., of this city, announce that on the 6th inst. he met with a serious accident in Berlin, Prussia. He had been spending the winter with his son in that city, but had finished his visit and was just about departing for Hamburg, whence he intended sailing for home on the 8th, when he opened the wrong door to leave the house and fell down a flight of stairs, fracturing his thigh bone. He was at date of letter confined to his bed and suffering much from the fractured limb.

MUSICAL.—At their regular rehearsal last evening, the Penobscot Musical Association voted to accept the invitation from the Haydn Association of Portland to attend a mass rehearsal in that city, the first week in June, of the music for the forthcoming Jubilee, by all the Musical Societies in the State and vicinity of Portland—provided that not less than twenty-five members signify their readiness to attend by leaving their names with the Secretary, E. F. Duren, previous to the next meeting on Monday evening. Tickets for members will be furnished for one fare for the round trip.

A GOOD PASS. Conductor Pratt of the E. & N. A. passenger train running between this city and Mattawamkeag asked a fat, comfortable looking old fellow for his ticket the other night, when the old chap waved his hand benevolently, answered "Pass," and spread himself over two seats again. He was quite indignant when the genial conductor asked to see the pass, and with much grumbling pulled out of a greasy wallet a freight receipt of the Sanford line of steamers endorsed Pleas Pass this Man if he Pays his fair if he donot PaY it Put him of.

Not good unless countersigned by

J. FISKE, Jr.

On being further questioned, the gentleman with a pass said he could not read writing very well, but did not doubt that his pass was good for an unlimited time over all the railroads in the United States, as Jim Fisk gave it to him in Boston last summer and he "had travelled considerable on it." He paid his fare with not a very good grace, and got off the cars swearing vengeance on the individual who "sold" him the pass.

THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG. This evening Walker's magnificent painting of the Battle of Gettysburg will be exhibited as usual in Music Hall, and Col. Bachelder will deliver what will be to our citizens the most interesting [illegible] and Dow's battalion, participated in the engagement, and there are few of our people who did not have relatives or friends in one of these organizations. The lecture, therefore, cannot fail to deeply interest all, and we hope to see Music Hall filled to its utmost extent.

To-morrow afternoon the painting will be exhibited for the school children at reduced prices of admission, and an appropriate lecture will be delivered. To-morrow evening, it will be exhibited for the last time in this city and Col. Bachelder will give a general review of the whole battle.

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT. The lovers of good music in this city will not forget the concert in Norombega Hall this evening, by Mrs. Staples, assisted by Mr. Fessenden of Boston, Mr. McLellan of Bath, Mr. Dow of Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Davenport. Most of our readers will have no difficulty in recalling the most favorable reception accorded Mrs. Staples a year ago, on the occasion of her first appearance in this city. She has but lately returned from Europe, where she spent much time in completing her musical education under the instruction of the best teachers, and her powerful, but pure soprano voice has acquired new richness under additional culture. Of Mr. Fessenden, whose clear, well-trained tenor has often delighted our citizens, and Mr. McLellan, well known throughout the State as possessing a baritone voice of great power, we need say nothing to our readers. The accompaniments by Mr. Dow will be as usual, perfect, and as an additional attraction not announced until Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport of this city, whose musical talent is unquestioned, have been engaged to play a duet upon piano and organ—a novelty here but which cannot fail to be as popular as it is novel.

A RELIC OF YE OLDEN TIME. In excavating for the foundations of the new block of Rines & Co. and Mr. Hatch, on Main st. the workmen unearthed about six feet below the street-level an ancient brick hearth in good preservation, around which were dug up a number of large bones, indicating that roast beef was generously used as an article of diet in the good old days of yore, when the big logs crackled and blazed in the old-fashioned fire-place. No one we have seen seems to know what house stood in that locality at the date at which the hearth was evidently laid. If the bricks could only speak what tales they would relate of the people whose busy feet have worn them thin—of the many gatherings, merry and solemn, in front of the fire they supported—the jovial parties assembled, when the mug of flip passed from hand to hand, and peals of merriment arose at the quaint stories told to the accompaniment of the simmering of the sap in the huge back-log, the roar of the blaze and the howling of the wind down the broad chimney-throat—of the wedding parties, the apple-bees, the merry-makings, when the ancient kitchen rang to the glad laughter from throats then young, now long turned to dust—of the sad and dreary scenes when the flickering light dimly illumined the coffin of the dead and the only sound heard, intensifying the stillness, was the faint snapping of an occasional spark from the low-burning logs, and a suppressed sob from the watching mother deprived of her first-born—of the hurried gatherings of the household when the red man was abroad disputing the right of the settlers to ancient Norombega, and the women melted lead over the fire to run bullets for the rifles of their fathers and brothers—if the bricks could only speak!

But after all they might tell a very commonplace story. Who knows?

MILITARY. The Jameson Guards of Bangor, Capt. Daniel White, Eighth Company of Maine Volunteer Militia, will arrive in our city on the morning of the 25th of June, on the Bangor boat. The company will be the invited guests of Co. I, Eighth Regiment, Capt. J. C. Bachellor (Wooldredge Cadets) of Lynn, by whom they will be entertained. At a military tournament of the different companies of Maine this company proved itself one of the best in the State, and would compare very favorably with any in the country. The Guards will be accompanied by the Bangor Cornet Band, twenty-two pieces, and also by a large delegation of the leading citizens of Bangor. A breakfast will be served them on their arrival, after which the company will proceed to Lynn, where they will arrive at 10 A. M., and be received with the proper military honors. A parade will be made through the principal streets, after which they will return to the armory of Co. I. The visit of the Jameson Guards will extend three days, at the expiration of which time the company will return to Bangor on the Sanford line of steamers from this city. Capt. White served in the late war with distinction, obtaining the rank of Brevet Brigadier General on his merits alone. His company, in most part, is composed of veteran soldiers like himself, and the highest esprit du corps is the result of so excellent a combination. Doubtless some one of our own fine military organizations will tender them escort to and from the Bangor boat.—[Boston Journal.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

A MAN FALLS UPON A CIRCULAR SAW AND IS TORN IN PIECES.

We learn from Mr. McGregor, proprietor of McGregor's Express, that about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, while Elder S. H. Horn was at work in his mill at Orneville, he stepped upon the saw-table to adjust some part of the machinery. A piece of lumber on which he stood, rolled suddenly, causing him to stumble, and being unable to preserve his balance he fell upon the circular saw—a very large one used for sawing boards, and in rapid motion at the time—and was instantly torn in pieces before he could even raise a cry for help.

Both his legs were sawed off, one arm severed, and one-half his head split off by the terrible instrument, which scattered his blood and brains all over the room. His body was also nearly cut in twain, and the horribly mutilated corpse fell upon the floor, a sickening sight.

Mr. Horn was an Elder of the Christian denomination, and was much respected in the community. He was 78 years of age and leaves a wife.

SUICIDE.

A BRISTOL MAN HANGS HIMSELF ON BOARD A VESSEL AT BREWER.

About half past 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon, Capt. Sproul, of the schooner M. C. Sproul, lying at Messrs. Palmer & Johnson's mill in Brewer, went into the cabin for some purpose, and was startled to find Capt. Geo. A. Poland, his brother-in-law, lying dead in his berth. On examining his condition, he found that Capt. Poland had wound a woolen "comforter" or scarf twice around his neck and tied it in a single knot, choking himself to death by pulling on the ends, which his hands still clasped, as he lay motionless on his back.

Capt. Sproul, upon seeing the condition of Capt. Poland, immediately went for assistance, and medical aid was summoned, but was useless, as life had evidently been extinct for some little time. Coroner Wilson of this city was notified, but on examining the body and investigating the circumstances under which the act was apparently committed, decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Capt. Poland was part owner of the M. C. Sproul, and had been master of her until about three weeks ago, when he attempted to take his life by opening a vein in his arm.—His efforts were frustrated, however, and he was relieved from the command, a strict watch being kept over him to prevent another attempt at suicide until within a few days, when it was slightly relaxed, he appearing as sane as ever. He has been out of health for some time and had met with considerable pecuniary losses, [illegible] doubtless combined in unseating his reason. He was [illegible] in [illegible]—he leaves a wife and [illegible] young children.

STATE SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention assembled at half past 1 o'clock for a prayer meeting, which continued until 2. The meeting was then called to order for the regular business. The reports of the Executive Committee and Treasurer were read and accepted, after which verbal reports of the county organizations were made by delegates from Androscoggin, Cumberland, Kennebec, Franklin, Oxford, Sagadahoc, Piscataquis and Waldo counties. In each the work was reported to be prospering and good results being accomplished.

An Executive Committee for the ensuing year was then elected as follows:—Friends, C. M. Bailey and Thomas B. Nichols; Free Will Baptists, Rev. A. L. Gerrish and Rev. A. A. Smith; Baptists, Rev. H. S. Burrage and Rev. A. Bryant; Congregationalists, Rev. Webster Woodbury and G. H. Palmer; Methodists, Rev. O. M. Cousins and Rev. J. P. Higgins; at large, Rev. E. M. Haynes and Rufus Deering.

Rev. Messrs. Woodbury, Randall, Burrage, Read, Eaton, and Mr. Charles Bailey were elected a Committee on Resolutions.

Rev. A. L. Gerrish of Pittsfield then proceeded to deliver an essay upon "The Appropriate Time for Holding the Sunday School."

He said he would like to know if in business to be done we should wait until after dinner, before commencing it. Surely this would not be business-like. It must be attended to early. If the Sunday School is worth anything give it a chance. If the work of a minister is wanted in the Sunday School, and if he brings out the points in his lesson, he must have a chance and time to do it. If there are two sermons and the School comes between them, it takes away in part the interest. Children are thinking of their dinner. They know whether they have a fair chance or not. Besides, when it takes place, at this time, those most needed are away; the mothers, who have most influence and are frequently the best teachers, must go home to prepare dinner. They may not be the best educated but they are in situations of sympathy with children, and have the strongest influence. From my own observation, classes placed under the charge of mothers, are interested. If school comes between meetings it is one of the worst things for mothers, whose presence is needed. The men, too, at recess, go to the horse-sheds and spend the time talking over the weather and crops. But give it a half day, have the minister there, give it an appropriate place, and not treat it as of little consequence as is the case when it comes after the time for the sounding of the dinner-horn. How can a minister be expected to give the time and attention to the School that he ought if there are two sermons and it comes between them? It must have an appropriate place and time to be successful; give it such a place, honor it with your presence, and it will be successful. We cannot give it the van in one respect, and place it in the rear in others.

At the close of the speaker's remarks, Rev. Mr. Randall said that in his church they have put the Sabbath School between the services and have also occupied one half a day with the School, and now the people could not be induced to change. There are few places in the State that do this. We are wedded to old customs; ministers are paid to preach and they must earn their money.—The old custom was to have two sermons on Sunday, or must they give two. I do not believe the Sunday School is to take the place of the Ministry, but a half day should be devoted to the work and all hindrances overcome.

Rev. Mr. Jewell said he had a different opinion about the time. He thought the most appropriate time was the best, and that this depended on circumstances. As these vary, so would there be a variation as to the best time.

Rev. Mr. Woodbury, speaking in regard to the Sunday School taking the place of the Ministry, said that if he could best serve a congregation by it, he should have the School.

Several others spoke in favor of one sermon a day, and of giving more attention to the Sunday School.

At the close of these remarks the question box was opened and Rev. Smith Baker read and answered them. Many were laid aside as bearing on other subjects than the Sunday School. Mr. Baker discharged this duty as he did that of the morning, ably and well.

The question of raising funds to defray the expenses of the Convention was called up and discussed, terminating in a collection which amounted to $36.

The names of Capt. Cyrus Sturdivant and Alden Baker were added to the Executive Committee, and the Convention adjourned until 7 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Met again at 7 o'clock. A change had been made during the afternoon, and Rev. Mr. Woodbury took the place of Rev. Mr. Cousins, and on the subject of Illustrative Teaching said:—

The subject of illustrative teaching comes to each one of us at the present time, and from this we would learn something. We have got to take truth and illustrate it, and this is not, as some think, mere story telling. No teacher has a right to tell a story merely for the sake of telling it, but only for the sake of instruction. What is this illustrative teaching? It is taking the warm thought of your own mind and so illustrating it as to impress it upon the minds of the children and make it as plain to them as it is to yourself. The first method then is narrative illustration, that is, illustrating by story telling. In using Bible history in illustrating, one must be thoroughly acquainted with the Bible, and cluster lesson around lesson, each one serving to fasten firmly the other. The power of illustration by narration and history will increase by practice, and we can gather up these, until we have a large supply. Another method is by visible illustration. We bring up truth and it does not enter the ear-gate and take possession of the mind, so we must bring it up to the eye-gate. The use of pictures and the black-board will serve for this kind of illustration. The speaker here showed the method of teaching by use of the black-board and pictures, and concluded by a reference to a fine map of the city of Jerusalem.

Rev. A. Bryant then took the stand and spoke on the subject of Teachers' meetings. He said he was well aware that this subject had been well ventilated at Conventions. He had attended one where Rev. Smith Baker delivered a written lecture on the subject, but it will bear talking up because the Sunday School is a place in which work is to be done, and it needs to be done in the best way possible. Something must be done to prepare a teacher for his work, and he must make the preparation himself. Bro. Gerrish said well, that a teacher could not teach what he did not know. A teacher is not to simply ask questions and hear them answered. That one will be most successful who best prepares himself for his duty. There is but one best way. A teacher may have all the helps he can to prepare himself, but he cannot do it well without the teachers' meeting. The object is to bring mind in contact with mind, it inspires and quickens thought, which better prepares the teacher, and the school derives a greater benefit. It gives a uniformity of teaching, new thoughts are suggested, difficult questions, if settleable, are settled. I have seen the evils of not having teachers meetings. [illegible] the teacher ought to regard, and he cannot become [illegible] he be careless, [illegible] ought not to be. I regard the teachers' meeting as a miniature Theological school, where diverse thoughts are brought up, and difficult questions are settled. I can indoctrinate my people better by means of these meetings than any other way. I prepare myself for them as much as I do for a sermon, and take the lead in them. I think it is the minister's place to take the lead, for by this means he virtually teaches the whole school.

After the speaker had closed, Rev. Smith Baker was called upon, and he gave his method of conducting a teachers' meeting.

The question-box was passed over, and Capt. Cyrus Sturdivant of Portland was called to the stand, and gave some statements concerning the Home Mission. He said the object of the mission was to bring the poor and outcast to the Mission Schools and to the Saviour. They have expended $1200 in bringing persons to the schools.

A contribution was taken up for the mission.

The Convention then adjourned, at 10 o'clock, to meet Thursday morning at 9.

The Ellsworth American publishes the letter of Hon. Ebenezer Knowlton with reference to the Congressional nomination, and speaks highly of that gentleman. Of Mr. Hale it says:—

So far as we know, this county, quite generally, will support Mr. Hale. He has been an able and attentive Representative, and like all other Congressmen, wants an endorsement by a re-election. This is natural and proper, and is in accordance with views which we have often expressed in these columns.

John Forsyth of Mobile insists that the Democracy are beyond reclamation if they fail to put in the field a straight-out ticket, with Charles O'Conor for President and General Hancock for Vice.

The Jefferson Club of New York city has passed resolutions favoring Mr. Greeley's election for President, whereat the Evening Post remarks: "The President of the Club and one of the prime movers in this affair is Mr. Henry W. Genet, Mr. Tweed's 'right bower' in Tammany legislation, and a 'deserving' member of the old ring. Mr. Genet always means business."

The Germans give no new signs of favor to Mr. Greeley. The majority of their leading organs both Republican and Democratic, are emphatically against him.

Wendell Phillips is among the advocates of the re-election of Gen. Grant.

The Illinois Republican State Convention heartily endorsed the renomination of President Grant.

The surest and most direct mode of removing or counteracting kidney, bladder and glandular diseases, mental and physical debility, diabetes, gravel, female weakness and uterine complaints, is to occasionally partake of SMOLANDER'S BUCHU. This vegetable medicine may be relied upon as being a tonic, diuretic solvent and alterative, and the best preparation of Buchu.

THE HUMAN ROOF AND ITS THATCHING. If the man deserves well of his country who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, surely he who produces a glorious crop of hair on a comparatively barren scalp deserves the hearty thanks of the obliged party. All honor, therefore, to PROFESSOR E. T. LYON, for, unquestionably, his renowned KATHAIRON accomplishes this object. Gentlemen whose whiskers are shy of making their appearance in force, or the fibers of whose moustaches disclose those "magnificent distances" for which Washington City was once so famous, will find this HAIR PERSUADER the most wonderful encourager of fibrous development that has ever yet been invented. Both sexes are advised to use it, as by all odds, it is the best article for improving the growth and beauty of the hair, keeping it free from the scurf and dandruff, preventing it from becoming harsh, dry and gray—giving it a rich gloss and endowing it with flexibility—that Toilet Chemistry has ever evolved from the vegetable kingdom.

CHICAGO, DANVILLE & VINCENNES
1st MORTGAGE BONDS.
Issue Only $14,500 per Mile.

THE ROAD NOW EARNING NET, NEARLY DOUBLE ITS ENTIRE INTEREST OBLIGATIONS.

THE LEADING POINTS IN RELATION TO THESE BONDS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1st. The Stockholders have built a first class road and equipped it in a first class manner, mainly with their own money.

2d. They have built their road through one of the richest portions of the State, where all the old roads into Chicago are earning over $10,000 per mile per annum, and are paying large and regular dividends.

3d. They have built the shortest road to the celebrated Block Coal Mines whose products have large and increasing market in Chicago, in the manufacture of Iron, as well as for domestic uses.

4th. The road is already earning so large an excess of its interest liability that its lands are safe beyond contingency.

5th. The amount of the mortgage is very moderate, being only about $18,500 per mile.

6th. While Railroad Bonds may be plenty, those upon profitable lines, and for so small an amount, are seldom in the market.

7th. Over $1,200,000 of these lands have been sold in a few weeks to Trust Companies, Savings Banks, trustees of estates, and the most careful private investors, and but a small amount remains, for which early application should be made.

8th. That as only a small amount remains unsold, parties who want them should make immediate application.

The Bonds are for $1,000 each, have forty years to run, and bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, payable on the first of April and October, both principal and interest being payable in gold in New York.

We do not hesitate to recommend these Bonds as unusually safe. They are attended with none of the uncertainties of projected enterprises, and the prompt payment of the interest, and the final payment of the principal, are as certain as any future financial event can well be.
